FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

The Constitutional Amendment.

The government of the United States of America, as administered by our fathers, we have always regarded as the "best government in the world." We have never seen the hour, when we did not reverence and esteem that government, more highly than all other human governments. Hence, with all the ability and earnestness we possessed, we labored to preserve it —opposed all efforts on the part of Northern or Southern disunionists to destroy it, until effort was unavailing. Under the ægis of that government,—a Federal Union, limiting and defining correctly its powers by a written Constitution, which secured at the same time the real rights of all the States in that Union,—we have ever regarded the blessings of civil liberty, the rights of person and property, better protected, than under any other. The attempt to dismember the Union at the risk, the certain risk of a bloody fratricidal war, we have always felt confident, put in imminent jeopardy not only the property of the South, but the liberties of the whole people and the very existence of its Republican character. Yet, when our native State, by the force of circumstances, elected to support the Southern cause, we went with her to the end.

So rapid, however, have been the encroachments of the heel of power upon the chartered rights of the people, as well as upon the essential principles of the government, that the true patriot, pausing to witness the wreck and ruin upon which his eye rests, is forced to exclaim, "Alas! is this my country?"

The action of the dominant party in the National Legislature for the last four years, and especially within the last six months, more developes the bad traits of human character,—the grinding, vindictive and persecuting spirit of the many towards the few, the victorious towards the vanquished, than we have believed, could find so long a lodgment in the American heart. If the Congress really wished to crush out hostility in the Southern heart—if its real object was to cure the spirit of opposition to Northern rule, it would have resorted to no better methods of increasing it. Or if its object was to adopt wise measures to unite the two sections indissolubly—if to create a reverence and a love for a government we have all loved, no course could have been more fraught with folly. But when we remember, that, according to their own declarations, the highest aim of the majority has been to strengthen their hold upon the reins of the government, nothing could be so derogatory to American Republicanism and American character, as the legislation of Congress has been.

We will not now discuss the powers of Congress over the question of the restoration of the Southern States. It is enough to say, that the Constitution, which that body has sworn to support, limits its powers over the States simply to the securing them Republican (not Republican in the modern sense, but in the sense of the Constitution) constitutions, and admitting their Senators and Representatives to its body, agreeably to the terms pointed out in the Constitution itself. All beyond this, it appears to us, is sheer usurpation. The last act of the Congress, to which it is our design now to refer, is the proposition of the majority, without even consultation with or the assent of the Executive branch of the government, to the several States to amend the Constitution in several radical and highly important particulars. The press of the country has ventilated this amendment at large, and to-day, we give our readers a most sensible article on the subject from the Richmond Enquirer. But we have seen slight allusion to what we regard the most serious objection to the proposed amendment. We therefore add a brief comment to the several sections of this most offensive measure.

The first section of the article proposed to be incorporated in the Constitution reads thus:

"ARTICLE—Section 1.—All persons born, naturalized in the United States, and are subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the U. S., and of the States wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without the process of law, or deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

In the organization of the government, our fathers felt that in forming a Constitution of the Federal Union, for the common defence and general welfare, it was of the utmost importance to guard all the personal and municipal franchises of the people, and of the States, against the encroachments of the general government. While, therefore, all the powers necessary to carry out the objects of the Union, and to perpetuate it, were granted to the general government, and no more, they reserved all other rights, franchises, muniments and powers to the States themselves. They recognized the sovereignty of the people, in the States, guaranteeing to them the powers necessary for the protection of that sovereignty, and the protection of the liberty, the person and property of the people. Hence, our people looked to the States alone, and not to the general government, for the protection of their lives, their property, and sacred honors, as well as all the franchises which the States could confer within their limits. It was only upon the infringement of their rights by a foreign State, that reference was ever had to the general government. It was upon this peculiar feature of the government that our people relied, as the great bulwark of their personal rights, liberties, and franchises. Now, it must be seen, at a glance, that the above first section strikes at the foundation of this first principle of American liberty, changes essentially the organic character of the government, and transfers from the States to the general government, the right to define the qualifications of their citizens, and obliterates the rights and powers of municipal authority in the States. Its verbiage, moreover, clearly indicates a design to give constitutional authority to that odious measure, the civil rights bill, whose provisions ignore and set aside the jurisdiction of the civil Courts of the State, over her own internal municipal regulations, and transfers them to the judicial authority of the general government. We ask, and we put the question seriously, to every old Democrat and every old Whig, if they have not been totally demoralized, how can they give their sanction or support to a proposed amendment of the Constitution, which so essentially changes the organic character of the government?

The second section proposed reads thus:

Section 2—Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for election of President or Vice President and United States representatives in Congress, executive or judicial officers, or the members of the Legislatures thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridging it, except for participating in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

The object of the above is evidently to force upon the Southern States negro suffrage, or a meagre representation. Yet the same attack upon the municipal rights of the States is apparent as in the first What the first fails to do in obliterating the reserved rights of the States, the second and third sections complete.

The third section reads thus:

Section 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress or elector of President or Vice President, or hold an office civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress or as an officer of the U. S., or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

The above is the most remarkable and startling proposition ever made to the American people. Seriously pondered, no considerate, cool American, at all anxious to preserve the government as it came from the hands of the fathers, can sanction it. Had the Congress confined its proposition to the qualifications of U. S. Senators and Representatives alone, while it would have been unjust to many Southern citizens, it would at least have had a shadow of reason, if there was any intention in the Radicals to preserve the character of the government. But to ask the States of the Federal Union to confer upon the Central government, the power to designate the Governors, Legislatures, Judiciary, and all executive and judicial officers of the States themselves, is a monstrosity which we are not prepared to believe any sound minded American citizen, North or South, will assent to. Instead of the general government being the creature of the States, limited by a constitution, it would put in that instrument the vicious and destructive power of making the general government the master and ruler of the States, disfranchising them of all the rights and powers reserved to them by the Constitution. Nothing would be lacking to make this a consolidated government, concentrating all power at Washington. It places the Southern States not at the mercy of the government, but under the entire control of two-thirds of the Congress.

It forever debars, if two-thirds of the Congress choose, from public office, five-sixths of all the male citizens of the South, capable of conducting the machinery of government. It operates as an ex post facto law, by making offences punishable after their committal, and violates that fundamental principle of American liberty, that no man shall be deprived of his rights without trial and conviction. It ignores and nullifies the solemn prerogative of the Executive to pardon offences against the Government, and shuts out the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government from all participation in exercising the important functions of their office.

The partition of Poland by the powers of Europe has never been forgiven by Christendom. The proposed action of the U. S. Congress dooms the Southern States to a worse despotism than Poland suffers. States they are, yet, in the condition Congress proposes to place them, they are States without sovereignty, without power, without franchises, only at the will and mercy of the general government. Can it be possible that the people of the Northern States will look on and, sanction a measure, which in a few more years of progress will tie them hand and foot, as the Southern States are proposed to be tied? If the corpses of our fathers could be rehabilitated, how would they stand aghast at such a picture of this once glorious Union.

The other section we regard as fully settled as any amendment to the Constitution can make it.

REPUDIATION.—It is a source of profound congratulation that, thus far, not a solitary paper in North Carolina has taken ground in favor of Repudiation, in any shape or form whatever.

We are gratified, however, to state that the State elections have been postponed till the third Thursday in October. We shall then have a loyal Governor and loyal Legislature, to take the place of the Convention.—Standard.

What kind of varmints would they be? We have heard much talk about "loyal men," "unmistakably loyal men," loyal Governors, loyal Legislatures, but, for the life of us, we have not been able yet to find out from the "so-called," what is the color or character of the animal.—The books and the law statutes will admit the loyalty of the man who obeys the laws, and supports the Constitution and the government. President Johnson, who required that none but loyal men should take part in the work of restoration, admitted all to take part in it who had been pardoned by him, and who had subscribed to the oath prescribed. That he does not make the "test oath" a test of loyalty, is proven by the fact that he did not require Ex-Prov. Gov. Holden to take it. Gov. Holden admitted the correctness of President Johnson's definition of loyalty,—nay, he went further than the President did. He actually officially announced the names of 500 persons, and over, and declared them to be loyal, and permitted them to vote, when not one of them had been pardoned. Nay, while Provisional Governor, he declared our people loyal.

The Radicals and the strait-sect men seem to have an ideal critter of a very different complexion from the above,—a sort of nondescript, partly white, but mostly black or dappled, or something unlike what people ever meet with in this country. The varmint is sometimes described by them to be one thing and then quite another. We are really anxious to see the animal or to see a fair description of a loyal man —an unmistakably loyal man—"a loyal Governor and a loyal Legislature."

THAD. STEVENS' latest effort to get a "Constitutional Amendment" through was an utter and signal failure. It will be seen, by reference to our telegraphic columns, that the arch-agitator sought to force a proposition upon the House, on Monday, looking to an amendment of the Constitution that would authorize the imposition of an export duty on Cotton. It was,—mirabile dictu!—promptly rejected. As Bill Arp said before the Reconstruction Committee, so-called, "But the rascals burnt my iron works in Pennsylvania!"

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.—Dr. R. H. Parks and Col. Chas. R. Jones are announced as candidates for the next House of Commons from the County of Iredell. A. M. Bogle, Esq., is announced as a candidate for the Senate, to represent the District of Iredell, Wilkes and Alexander.

COTTON PICKING MACHINE.—Messrs. Cowper & Moore have on exhibition, at their store, a very simple machine for picking out cotton, patented by Geo. A. Howe, 31 Cedar St., New York. It is said that one hand will pick out 1000 lbs. in a day with it. Farmers are particularly requested to examine it, as their opinions are desired as to its usefulness and practicability. It will be exhibited only a few days.

A Lump of Gold.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A late number of the Sentinel states that a piece of gold was now on exhibition at Statesville weighing six pounds, and that it is the largest found in this State since 1828. You will please correct this error, by saying that a piece was found in Montgomery County, at the Swift Island Gold mine, in the year 1860, weighing eight and three quarter pounds. S.

Agricultural Meeting in Granville.

At a called meeting of the members of the Granville County Agricultural Society, held in Henderson, on the 16th., for the purpose of reviving the annual Fairs (suspended during the war,) the following officers were elected to serve during the balance of this year: Col. S. S. Royster, President; Dr. W. W. Young, Treasurer; Geo. Badger Harris, Secretary; Col. P. E. A. Jones, Chairman of the Executive Committee.

A committee of fourteen was appointed to solicit subscription from the original stockholders, (one hundred and ten in number) and all others who may feel an interest in the matter, for the purpose of enclosing anew the Fair Grounds, and otherwise putting them in good order,—said Committee consisting of the following named gentlemen: Dr. A. C. Harris, H. J. Robards, Jno. W. Wiggins, John E. Clark, C. H. K. Taylor, for the County of Granville; Robert Smithwick, W. A. Quincy, A. L. Steed, Dr. S. G. Ward, A. J. Rogers, of the County of Warren; W. A. Eaton, Phil. B. Hawkins, W. B. Harter, and P. C. Persons, of the County of Franklin.

Some time about the middle of October was agreed on for the time of holding said Fair,—the public to be notified of the precise day, after the next meeting, to be held in Henderson, on the second Saturday in July.

Much determination was evinced in the meeting, to have an exhibition equal to those held heretofore, in spite of all adverse circumstances. It was ordered that the Secretary furnish the Daily Sentinel with a copy of the proceedings, and that the Daily Progress, Standard, Weldon State, and Louisburg Eagle be requested to copy.

GEO. BADGER HARRIS,
Secretary.

Jonathan Worth.

The address of Gov. Worth to the people of the State, offering himself as a candidate for another term, will be seen in another column. Gov. Worth has made a good and faithful Executive, and we can perceive no reason why the people shall not choose to re-elect him. He is a consistent Union man, and can be voted for by all parties, who desire harmony, and the welfare of the State, in or out of the Union, if Congress will keep us out. Indeed, we hope there will be no opposition, and his election be made unanimous. Such a unit will do more good in behalf of restoration than any other course. No man in the State has her welfare more at heart than Jonathan Worth—no man better qualified to discharge the responsible duties of the Executive Chair.—Statesville American.

Some forty Republican Congressmen have written a letter to Governor Brownlow, asking him to convene the Tennessee Legislature to ratify the Constitutional amendment, which has finally passed Congress. If ratified, an intimation is held out that the Tennessee delegation will be at once admitted in Congress.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

TUESDAY, June 19, 1866.

The resolution of Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, to limit debate, restricting members (on the reading of ordinances) to one speech of five minutes, was taken up and adopted.

The resolution to have the Capitol lighted with gas was discussed and adopted.

An ordinance to authorize an exchange of State bonds for certain causes, was put on its third reading.

A substitute, reported from the select Committee to which the ordinance was referred, was read, and pending amendments thereto, the hour arrived for taking up the special order, viz: "an ordinance to provide a circulating medium," on its second reading.

Mr. Logan addressed the Convention in support of the measure.

Mr. Foy offered a substitute for the ordinance proposing to relieve the people by allowing losses resulting from the war, the abolition of slavery, &c., to be set off against debts contracted prior to the 1st. of May 1865, the State to assume the residue of individual indebtedness, and to issue treasury notes, to the aggregate amount of such debts, as a circulating medium.

Mr. Smith, of Johnston, moved to amend the substitute by adding a proviso that its provisions shall not extend to original secessionists.

Mr. Warren opposed the ordinance, as it was clearly in violation of the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, replied defending the ordinance. He cited the previous issues of State notes as a circulating medium to rebut the allegation that the ordinance was unconstitutional, and urged that "the Stay Law," that everybody favored, was much more open to this objection than the ordinance under consideration.

Mr. Warren moved to lay the ordinance on the table.

The yeas and nays were ordered and the motion prevailed as follows:

AYES.—Messrs. Allen, Baines, Baker, Barrow, Brickell, Brown, Clark, Conigland, Cowper, Dickey, Eaton, Faircloth, Faulkner, Gahagan, Gilliam, Grissom, Hodge, Howard, Jarvis, Joyner, King, Manly, McKoy, of Sampson, McDonald, of Chatham, McGehee, McIvor, N. A. McLean, Nat. McLean, McLaughlin, Norfleet, Pearsall, Perkins, Person, Phillips, Polk, Pool, Richardson, Satterthwaite, Settle, Spencer, of Montgomery, Stephenson, Stewart, Thompson, Walkup, Ward, Warren, Williams, Wilson, Winburne and Winston.—50.

NAYS.—Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Bagley, Berry, Bingham, Boyden, Bryan, Burgin, Bynum, Caldwell, of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Dick, Ellis, Foy, Furches, Garland, Garrett, Godwin, Harris, of Guilford, Harris, of Rutherford, Harrison, Haynes, Henry, Jackson, Jones, of Davidson, Jones, of Henderson, Jones, of Rowan, Lash, Logan, Love, of Jackson, Lyon, McCauley, McDonald, of Moore, McRae, Moore, of Chatham, Patterson, Rumley, Rush, Sloan, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Johnston, Smith, of Wilkes, Spencer, of Hyde, Starbuck and Swan.—45.

Mr. McGehee introduced a resolution of inquiry relative to the registered bonds of the State—the date of their issue—their amount, the purposes for which issued, &c., which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Settle, the ordinance in relation to Railroad and Express Companies was made the special order for 9½ o'clock to-morrow.

The Convention proceeded to consider the amended Constitution. The question recurred on the motion of Mr. Faulkner, to amend section 9 of article II, by abolishing the property qualification for membership of the House of Commons.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, opposed the amendment.

Mr. King moved to amend the 6th. section, by requiring 100 acres of land, or a freehold of the value of $300, as a qualification for the Commons.

Messrs. Settle, Smith, of Wilkes and Grissom addressed the Convention in favor of abolishing the property qualification.

Messrs. Eaton and Caldwell favored its retention.

Mr. Baker moved to amend the amendment by requiring a residence of five years in the State and taxable property of the value of $500 as the qualification.

This amendment was rejected.

YEAS—Messrs. Alexander, Bagley, Baines, Barry, Boyden, Brickell, Buxton, Caldwell, of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Cowper, Dickey, Eaton, Faircloth, Ferebee, Gilliam, Godwin, Harris, of Guilford, Hodge, Joyner, King, Lash, Manly, McDonald, of Moore, McGehee, McIvor, N. A. McLean, Nat. McLean, Moore, of Wake, Murphy, Patterson, Pearsall, Perkins, Phillips, Polk, Rush, Satterthwaite, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Johnson, Spencer, of Hyde, Spencer, of Montgomery, Starbuck, Stephenson, Thompson, Walkup, Warren, Wilson, Winburne, Winston and Wright—49.

The question recurring on Mr. Faulkner's amendment to abolish the property qualification, was rejected, as follows:

NAYS.—Messrs. Alexander, Allen, Bagley, Baines, Barrow, Berry, Boyden, Brickell, Buxton, Caldwell, of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Cowper, Eaton, Faircloth, Ferebee, Gilliam, Godwin, Harris, of Guilford, Hodge, Joyner, King, Lash, Manly, McKoy, of Sampson, McGehee, McIvor, N. A. McLean, Nat. McLean, McRae, Moore, of Wake, Murphy, Patterson, Pearsall, Perkin, Phillips, Polk, Rumley, Rush, Smith, of Anson, Smith, of Johnston, Spencer, of Hyde, Spencer, of Montgomery, Starbuck, Thompson, Walkup, Warren, Wilson, Winburne, Winston and Wright.—50.

Mr. Baines moved to amend by requiring members of the House of Commons to have attained the age of 25 years. Not agreed to.

Mr. Baker moved to amend by requiring five year's residence immediately preceding election to the House of Commons. Not agreed to.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, moved to amend by inserting after the property qualification the words "and shall have annually paid the taxes thereon." Not agreed to.

The section, as amended, was then adopted.

Section 12 was amended so as to read that every person having one sixteenth part of negro blood or more, shall be deemed a person of color.

On motion of Mr. Satterthwaite, the article was amended by the addition of a section providing that no new County shall be formed that does not contain the 120th part of the white population of the State, nor if its formation deprive other Counties of said 120th part.

Mr. Settle offered an amendment to sec. 4 of art. V, that no person holding office in any bank or railroad shall be entitled to a seat in the General Assembly.

Pending the discussion upon the amendment, the Convention adjourned.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

The Constitutional Amendment.

The unanimity with which the Republicans of all degrees, voted for the proposed constitutional amendment, on its late passage through the House of Representatives, is said to have been caused by a promise on the part of the more violent, not to press their other measures; and also their fear that if they did not take the amendment as diluted, they would soon be unable to obtain anything. This latter reason was openly avowed by Stevens, who made the closing speech, as the reason of his vote.

Of the merits of this proposed amendment, it is unnecessary to speak. It is sufficient for the South to know that it is a proscription and degradation of her leading citizens for no reason that does not equally apply to us all. It is not expected that any Southern State will vote to ratify it, except under some such miserable burlesque on popular government as is seen in Brownlow's legislature. It is of course known that no Southern State can be in favor of it, or can have its vote so recorded, except by a palpable falsification of its will.

But it is probable that our votes will not be counted. The Reconstruction Committee take the broad ground in their report that there is not a single State Government or organization in the whole South, Tennessee, "perhaps," excepted; no authority to act, and no political community to act for. Mr. Stevens, as well as Mr. Sumner, had long before affirmed the same views; the former declaring that "the Committee wanted only nineteen of the loyal States to ratify the proposed amendment, for he utterly scorned and repudiated the idea that the votes of the States lately in rebellion should be counted in the adoption of the amendment."

The Administration will doubtless hold differently, as in the case of the emancipation amendment; and it is possible that trouble may grow out of the difference. The amendment is secure of ratification by vastly more than three-fourths of the Northern States; so that those who hold with Stevens and the Committee will maintain in any event that it has been regularly adopted, while the Executive will require a clear three-fourths, inclusive of the Southern States. Even this, we fear, will be obtained, by frauds such as we have referred to; for the Northern vote, aided by the votes of four Southern States, would suffice. It is thought, however, by some that such unanimity of the North is not to be had, and the amendment is sure to be defeated, if the Southern vote is allowed to be counted.

In whatever way carried, this amendment will rest on no stable tenure. Passed through Congress only by means of the exclusion of eleven States from their rights of representation, its authority will always be open to question, and will be assailed and overthrown whenever the rival party shall come into power. It is even doubtful whether the President, consistently with his views, can recognize it at all. Such obedience as it may command, will be accorded, not to its own rightful authority, but to the sway of the party that supports it. Such being obviously the case, it is difficult to conceive what the Radicals want with it. So long as they are supreme, they do not need it; and if they should be outvoted, it would not avail them. It simply sows the seeds of future if not immediate political controversies and convulsions.

To the citizens of the South it only remains to be firm, but calm and prudent. We will, of course, have no part in our own dishonor. Any indignity imposed on us, will be against our votes, if we are allowed to vote, but in any case without our votes. In any action we may be called upon to take, we will be faithful, as we have ever been, to the Constitution. We will have no part in its violation for any purpose. Our votes, if allowed to be given, will be against the proposed amendment.—Whether they shall be counted, depends not upon us. It is a question for the North. If the people there sustain the trampling under foot of the Constitution, with all its guards and muniments, it will have to be so. If they are content with the unbridled rule of radicalism, we shall have to endure it too. We shall have to await until the re-action; until the principles now contrived for our oppression shall work some inconvenience to Boston or to Philiadelphia. We shall then see that despite a more dignified garb, these are in reality but special expedients, for the oppression of a class under guise of rules for the whole.

There is no doubt that constitutional government is now in the extreme crisis of its fate. For many years we have been tending more and more to a mere government of the majority, the exact antipode of constitutional government. Constitutions are, in their nature and design, checks upon the ruling power, for the protection of the helpless. The infirmity of all constitutions is, that they are administered by the men whom they are intended to restrain.—The minority have, consequently, no protection, no muniments, no safety, but in the honor and the voluntary fidelity of those who bear rule.—The rights of the weak, after all the bulwarks provided by the boasted wisdom of man, have no other remedy, no other guarantee. For many years, as already observed, this guarantee, in this country, has been weakening and failing. The democratic idea has been displacing the constitutional idea; the dignity of votes has been supplanting the dignity of the constitutional compact; the lust of strength has prevailed over the authority of the fundamental law. It was at this growing disregard of the Constitution that the South took the alarm.—As the minority she was filled with apprehension and anxiety, to see her only defence so rapidly demolished; towers, battlements, walls, thrown down or contemptuously overleaped.

Wars are proverbially dangerous to constitutional liberty. It was this that made John Randolph a violent opposer of the war with England in 1812. The late war was not only in accordance with the proverb, but will always be quoted as a striking illustration of it.—Never before were the limitations of law so entirely disregarded, never before was the exercise of power so utterly irrespective of the grant, in the history of the world. The New York Tribune has recently stated that all of the acts of the Administration by which the war was inaugurated, armies called out, &c., were wholly illegal. The subsequent exercises of power need not be referred to. They were all excused on the ground of necessity; that it was more important to preserve the State than the Constitution, &c. But the habit has outlived the supposed necessity.

The President, indeed, has shown an anxious desire to return to a Constitutional regimen; but the spirit of absolutism has lodged, just where it is most dangerous, in the multitude.—Practically, we have already no Constitution. From the force of habit we observe some of its forms; but we have simply the rule of the majority without restraint or check, save such as the President is sometimes able to exert. If the Constitution were committed to the flames today, we should have in substance the same Government, a mere majority absolutism. Indeed we have been in the habit of attaching too much value to written Constitutions. England, without one, has a more determinate and a juster government than ours. William Penn uttered truth when he said: "The form of a government is but an inferior consideration; the worst form in good hands, being about as good as the best; and the best form, in bad hands, being almost as bad as the worst."

If our Constitution is to be disregarded, it is of little consequence how it reads, or how it is amended. If the Government is to be administered according to the impulses of passionate men, wild with fanaticism, it matters but little what we call it, or what outward form it wears,—it will be infinitely worse than would be the government of Russia administered by a good Czar.

These reflections have only a philosophical value to the Southern people. We are accorded no part in the government, and have no responsibility for the wild raid which unbridled impulse is making upon our political charter.—We see the danger, but have no power to control it. Fortunately we shall only share it.—The Samson that is plucking down the temple of Constitutional liberty, will be partner in the ruin. Leaving then the responsibility where the power is claimed, let us address our thoughts to our industrial avocations. Let us devote our energies to our several pursuits. Let us increase our strength and consequence by encouraging immigration, and developing the boundless resources of our domain, while the North works out the result which it has taken into his own hands. When our votes and voice are wanted, they can always be had; and they will always be given on the side of the Constitution.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—J. H. Horner announces that the next session of his Classical and Mathematical School, at Oxford, will commence on the 1st. of August, instead of 2nd. Monday in July, as at first announced.

R. H. Rowe, Tarboro, offers his large and commodious Livery and Sale Stables in that place.

Cowper & Moore announce a highly attractive Auction Sale for Saturday,—embracing the valuable stock of B. Golden & Co., on Fayetteville Street. See the items.

Peters & Reed, Norfolk, Virginia., General Commission, Shipping and Forwarding Merchants. The list of references which these gentlemen present is a sufficient guarantee of their entire reliability.

MILITARY COURT.—The following is a copy of the order from the War Department, convening the Court Martial at present in session in this City, for the trial of Brevet Brig. Gen. Whittlesey, Ass't. Com. Freedman's Bureau, and others:

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7th. 1866.

SPECIAL ORDERS, No. 270.

A General Court Martial is hereby appointed, to meet at Raleigh, North Carolina, on the 18th. of June 1866, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the trial of Brevet Brigadier General E. Whittlesey, Assistant Commissioner Freedman's Bureau, Brevet Major C. J. Wickersham, Ass't. Adj't. Gen. of Volunteers, Brevet Major J. C. Mann, Ass't. Quartermaster of Volunteers, Brevet Major F. A. By order of the Secretary of War,

[Official.] W[illegible] NICHOLS,
R. WILLIAMS, [illegible] Adj. General,
Asst. Adj. General.

GEN. RUGER RELIEVED.—We believe that we have not heretofore mentioned that Brevet Maj. Gen. Jno. C. Robinson has been ordered to relieve Gen. Ruger as Military Commander of North Carolina.

WITHIN a few minutes after books of subscription to the Williamston and Tarboro Railroad were opened in the former place, the sum of 25,000 was taken, with a reasonable prospect of doubling the amount in a short time.

THE CONFEDERATE DEAD OF EDGECOMBE.—The 15th. inst. was set apart for the decoration of the graves of the Confederate dead in the beautiful village of Tarboro'. From the correspondence of the Petersburg Index we glean the following account of the interesting memorial exercises:

"Every business house was closed after 4 P. M., and our citizens of all ages and sexes, repaired to the beautiful grove of the Female Academy, where a procession was formed, in column of twos, and marched slowly, to the tolling of bells, to the "old church yard, which had been handsomely put in order for the occasion. The ladies were attired in pure white, each carrying in their hands bunches, baskets, or wreaths of flowers and evergreens. Arrived at the spot, the procession formed around a circular plot of ground in the centre of the Cemetery, where a platform had been raised, and from which an address was to be delivered by Colonel Jos. H. Hyman. Over the entrance an arch tastefully ornamented had been erected and on which was inscribed "Our Gallant Dead." I should have mentioned in the proper place, that it was a sad and silent procession, showing the minds and hearts of our people were deeply imbued with the spirit of the occasion.

Col. Hyman's address was particularly appropriate, beautiful in thought and conception, and his well chosen words and impressive manner produced a marked effect.

At the conclusion of the address, the interesting ceremony of placing flowers and evergreens on the graves began. The graves of the humblest privates received the same consideration as the distinguished officers.

In the Episcopal Cemetery lie the bodies of Col. Mercer, of 21st. Ga., and Maj. Gen. W. D. Pender, graduates of West Point, and as true specimens of the gallant soldier as ever drew a sword in defence of their homes and firesides."

EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA.—From an interesting sketch, in the Norfolk Day Book, of the resources, &c., of some of the Eastern counties of North Carolina, we make the following extracts:

"Tyrrel is one of the oldest counties in North Carolina. It is named after the proprietor of that part of the province, originally owned and granted to Lord Ashby. Its capital is Columbia, situated on the Scuppernong river, which flows into Albemarle Sound. Its distance from Raleigh is two hundred miles east. According to the data before us, it has not increased in population, but we regret that we cannot regard them as reliable. Its products are corn, cotton, wheat, oats, wool, fish and lumber; more than twenty five years ago it produced to the value of upwards of $74,000. Hyde is also one of the oldest counties, having existed previous to 1729. Its court-house is at Swan quarter on Pamlico Sound, to the southward and westward of Matamuskeet Lake, and distance from Raleigh 203 miles. Its products, as are those of all these counties, are of the same general description as those of Tyrrel. Washington county was formed in 1799. Plymouth is its capital, situated to the southward and westward of Albemarle Sound, and lying on one of the mouths through which the Roanoke enters into the Sound. Beaufort was formed in 1741, and called after the Duke, who was its original proprietor. Its capital is Washington, situated on the northern bifurcation of Pamlico river. Martin was formed out of Halifax and Fayette. The thriving little town of Williamston is its capital, situated on a southern bend of the Roanoke, which forms an island. Here is published the Williamston Expositor, which is now engaged in advocating a railroad between it and Tarboro'. Pitt was formed in 1760, out of Beaufort, and has its name from the Earl of Chatham. Greenville is its capital, situated on a southern bend of Tar River. Edgecombe was formed in 1733, and signifies, according to Baily, a valley environed with hills, the name being of Saxon origin. Tarboro' is its capital, situated on Tar river, nearly directly west from Williamston. Halifax was formed from Edgecombe. The name, as we read, signifies "holy hair." Its capital is Halifax, beautifully situated on a western bend of the Roanoke, and navigable for steam and other boats."

DESTRUCTIVE HURRICANE.—A very destructive storm of wind and rain occurred in Steel Creek neighborhood, in Mecklenburg county, on Saturday evening, the 9th. inst. Among the sufferers we have heard that Mr. E. Caruthers had four out-houses blown down, and John McCraney's stable and crib were destroyed. Several horses and cattle were destroyed, and the roads and woods strewn with falling timber. A great deal of fencing was thrown down, the growing crops of wheat and oats much injured, and the fields considerably washed. The storm extended over a space of about six miles in length and two in breadth.—Western Democrat.

LITHOTOMY—A SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.—Dr. J. W. Jones, of this place, a few days ago, returned to his friends, relieved, a boy 7 years of age, from whose bladder he took a stone weighing 200 grains or about ⅓ of an ounce. He was assisted in the operation by Dr. Cobb, of this place.—Tarboro' Southerner.

GENERAL NEWS.

The President's veto of the New York and Montana Mining Company bill receives the approval of nearly every one, excepting those interested. It was chaperoned through the Senate by Mr. Wade, and gave exclusive right to the corporation to enter upon and pre-empt alternate sections of mining lands at a dollar and a quarter per acre, in advance of its survey or being thrown into market. The object of the bill was manifestly to enrich the corporators at government expense.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has authorized the statement that he will preside at the trial of Mr. Davis for treason in October.—Questions as important as ever affected the rights of communities numbering millions are involved in that trial. The popular branch of the national Congress has prejudged them. It has by solemn resolution declared what the verdict of the court should be, and, for the purpose of prejudicing public sentiment against Mr. Davis, it has reiterated against him an accusation of complicity in the crime of murder, when not a person voting for the resolution reproducing the charge believed him guilty of it.

An old man named Robert Colton, formerly keeper of the Almshouse, committed suicide at his wife's grave, in Patterson, N. J., on Sunday, the 10th inst., by taking a mixture of laudanum and arsenic. It appears that his marriage with his second wife, a young girl, was unfortunate, and he has haunted his first wife's grave for some time, often staying there all night. A letter was found in his pocket, containing a feeling allusion to his recent troubles, and concluding with a touching request to be buried in the same grave with his dead wife.

The honors paid to General Beauregard at Liverpool, and the admission of Hon. J. P. Benjamin to the London Bar, without the usual three years' preliminaries, has drawn the fire of several irate Radical journalists. It is a very small business thus to follow up men with an envious malevolence. The Philadelphia Press shows the style of its chagrin, by saying it is necessary to watch the spoons where Mr. Benjamin dines. It was probably thinking of the immortal Butler.

There is no more agreeable place in Washington pour passer le temps than the Red Parlor of the Executive Mansion, where Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Stoker are accustomed to receive calls in the evening. It is a cool, cheerful, cosy room for a state apartment, just adapted to a family sitting room, provided with a grand piano, over which hangs the famous full length portrait of Washington by Stuart, which Mrs. Madison saved from the conflagation that destroyed the house in August, 1814.

RE-ARRESTED.—James Egan, Esq., an aged citizen of Lexington district, in South Carolina, who was recently discharged from custody by Judge Nelson, of the Supreme Court of the United States, has again been put under arrest by the military on duty in that State, and is now in confinement in Columbia. Mr. Egan knows what sort of a free country this is.

The well known clown Dan Rice is announced for performance as a Congressional candidate in the nineteenth district of Pennsylvania. Rice has already been defeated for the State Legislature, but, according to the Erie Dispatch, is ambitious to run or tumble for Congress, and willing to spend a great deal of money.

Cotton in Georgia has commenced to blossom. The recent rains have overwhelmed the crops in many places with grass. Wheat throughout the State is harvested, and although the crop turns out better than was feared some time ago, it is by no means excellent.

The Alexandria State Journal expresses its fear that Underwood would be murdered in Richmond.

The Petersburg Index says, 'Don't be alarmed Judge! It doesn't follow because you are an ass, that the Virginians are assassins.

A proposition is pending in Congress to place sixty thousand dollars in the hands of Gen. B. F. Butler, to be held in trust for the purchase of a National Asylum. If Butler is to hold the money, who will hold him?

A Paris capitalist has given Louis Napoleon the severest hit of the season. Alluding to his Auxerre speech, he said:

"The Emperor has carried deceit to such a point of refinement, that one cannot even believe the contrary of what he says."

A Washington correspondent writes on Thursday last:

"Messrs. O'Connor and Pratt left here to-day for the North. It is understood that their last interview with the President was entirely satisfactory. There will be no change at present in the status of Mr. Davis's case."

Senator Wright, of New Jersey, is improving in health, and it is believed that he may soon be able to resume his public duties.

The Democracy of Pennsylvania propose to hold a Mass State Convention in Reading, Berks county, on the 11th. of July.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, June 18.

SENATE.—Mr. Harriss presented the petition of seven New York banks, asking an extension of time on the tax on circulation. Referred to the Finance committee.

The President, in response to resolutions, transmitted a communication from the acting Secretary of the Interior, respecting transactions for colonization, transportation, &c., of negroes. A report was made March 7, 1864, showing that upwards of $33,000 had been expended, which was augmented by a supplemental report to $37-391. The report further says that the act of 1862, under which this was done, was subsequently repealed and no other measure of a similar character has since been passed by Congress.

HOUSE.—Thad. Stevens offered a joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the Constitution giving Congress the power to lay an export duty on Cotton. He refused to allow debate and pressed the measure to a vote, hoping to get it passed by a two-thirds vote. The resolution was rejected,—yeas 59, nays 61.

Mr. Bingham offered a resolution, which was passed, requesting the President to transmit the Reconstruction amendment, lately adopted by Congress, to the several States for ratification.

Raymond, of New York, delivered a long speech on re-construction, declaring himself a faithful, consistent Republican, yet defending the President.

Cuba,—The Slave Trade,—The Tax on Cotton.

WASHINGTON, June 18.

The State Department is officially advised by the Consul at Havana, that Lersunda, the new Captain General of Cuba, expresses himself determined to suppress the traffic in slaves. He notifies his subordinate Lieutenant Governors, that he will hold them to a strict accountability for any violation of his orders in this respect, which are from the Queen.

The Senate Finance committee have reported a tax-bill, reducing the tax on Cotton to two cents per lb.

AN ORDINANCE

IN RELATION TO THE

Act of the General Assembly, Entitled "Revenue."

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the act of the General Assembly, entitled "Revenue," imposing taxes on purchases, sales and receipts, shall not be construed to extend to those purchases, sales or receipts on which taxes have actually been paid, under the ordinance of the Convention, entitled "An Ordinance to provide Revenue for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five."

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That where specific taxes have been imposed for license to use any article or carry on any business for the year preceding the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, one-half thereof shall only be payable in those cases, where taxes were actually paid under said ordinance for the same license.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That retailers of spirituous liquors, who paid the tax prescribed in section eleven of said ordinance, shall be entitled to retail for the year for which their license was granted, without further tax to the State for such retailing.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That the provisions of section thirty two of Schedule B, of said act of Assembly, shall only extend to the license for distilling spirituous liquors from grain.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That in all cases where taxes are payable to the Sheriff or Collector, without the subject from which they are derived being listed, such Sheriff or Collector, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of such taxes, shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to administer an oath to the person liable to pay the same.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall be in force from its ratification.

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace, Esq., President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, [Aug. 30, 1865,] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintance, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 per dozen. Address,

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of them, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box half taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in so fast order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St.
New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for disease. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense value to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofula Swellings and Sores, Salt Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

A BOON TO THE SICK.

AND

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold at bay, diseases, that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their action is magic influence is felt at once; and the most inveterate of this most distressing disease is overcome. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect to prostrated doses to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS.

Invariably cure the following Diseases.

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,

A CARD.

Because of affliction and age which renders me incapable of continuing business, I now retire from the Book trade, leaving my entire stock and interest in the hands of Messrs. Branson and Farrer—except the publication of the "N. C. Almanac," which, I trust will be received with the same favor as heretofore.

In retiring, I return my sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage which the public has chosen to bestow upon me during the last half century—the length of time in which I have been engaged in the book trade in this State—and cheerfully recommend to my old friends and patrons, my successors, Messrs. Branson & Farrer, by whom, I am sure they will be satisfactorily accommodated.

Mr. H. D. Coley, so well known to the Book trade and to the public, and so long engaged in business with me will be retained as an assistant in business with Messrs. Branson & Farrer. He invites his old friends to call upon him.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power to give them the necessary speed. In all cases where this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars ($5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to his point.
